6.2 Customer or Third Party Duties; Delays. Customer is responsible for, and assumes the risk of, any issues or problems resulting from the content, accuracy, completeness, competence, or consistency of Customer computer facilities, programs, files, documentation, test data, sample output, or other information, resources, and personnel supplied by Customer or any of Customer's third party providers. Customer (and/or, if applicable, Customer's third party providers) will make available in a timely manner for OnShift's use, at no charge to OnShift, all technical data, computer facilities, programs, files, documentation, test data, sample output, or other information, resources, and personnel required by OnShift for the performance of the Professional Services. OnShift will use commercially reasonable efforts to complete the Professional Services by the Term Start Date set forth in the Order Form. Customer acknowledges that completing the Professional Services by the Term Start Date is contingent upon timely completion by Customer (and/or, if applicable, Customer's third party providers) of activities required in the Order Form ("Customer Obligation(s)"). The parties understand and agree that any of the following may compromise OnShift's ability to complete the Professional Services by the Term Start Date: (a) any delay caused by Customer's failure or inability to perform a Customer Obligation; (b) any delay due to Customer's request for changes; (c) any delay due to a third party's act, failure to act or delay in performing any obligation; or (d) any other delay incurred as a result of Customer's action(s) or omission(s). The OnShift name, the OnShift logo, and the product names associated with the Services are trademarks of OnShift or third parties, and no right or license is granted to use them.

7.2 Indemnification. OnShift shall indemnify and hold Customer harmless from and against any third party costs, damages, losses, liabilities and expenses (collectively "Claim(s)") to the extent arising out of or in connection with a Claim alleging that the use of the Services used in accordance with this Agreement infringes a U.S. patent, copyright or trademark right of a third party or misappropriates such third party's trade secrets. Customer shall indemnify and hold OnShift harmless from and against any Claim(s) to the extent arising out of or in connection with: (a) a Claim alleging that the use of the Customer Data in accordance with this Agreement or Customer's use of the Services in violation of this Agreement infringes or otherwise violates such third party's property, privacy or other rights or violates any applicable law; or (b) the negligence, misconduct, or breach of this Agreement by Customer or any of its Users. The indemnifying party's obligations under this Section 7.2 are contingent upon the indemnified party (a) promptly giving notice of the Claim to the indemnifying party once the claim is known; (b) giving the indemnifying party sole control of the defense and settlement of the Claim (provided that the indemnifying party may not settle such Claim unless such settlement unconditionally releases the indemnified party of all liability and does not adversely affect the indemnified party's business or service); (c) providing to the indemnifying party all available information and reasonable assistance; and (d) not compromising or settling such Claim without the indemnifying party's approval (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld). With respect to OnShift's indemnification obligations, if (x) any aspect of the Service is found or, in OnShift's reasonable opinion is likely to be found, to infringe upon the Intellectual Property Right of a third party as specified above, or (y) the continued use of the Service is enjoined, then OnShift will promptly and at its own cost and expense at OnShift's option: (i) obtain for Customer the right to continue using the Service; (ii) modify the item(s) in question so that it is no longer infringing; or (iii) replace such item(s) with a non-infringing functional equivalent. If, after all commercially reasonable efforts, OnShift determines in good faith that options (i) - (iii) are not feasible, OnShift will remove the infringing items from the Service and refund to Customer on a pro-rata basis any prepaid unused Fees paid for such infringing element. OnShift shall have no obligation or liability for any claim pursuant to this Section to the extent arising from: (i) the combinations, operation, or use of the Service supplied under this Agreement with any product, device, or software not supplied by OnShift to the extent the combination creates the infringement; (ii) the unauthorized alteration or modification by Customer of the Service, or (iii) OnShift's compliance with Customer's designs, specifications, requests, or instructions pursuant to an engagement with OnShift's Professional Services organization relating to the Service to the extent the claim of infringement is based on the foregoing. THE FOREGOING IS THE INDEMNIFYING PARTY'S SOLE OBLIGATION AND THE INDEMNIFIED PARTY'S EXCLUSIVE REMEDY WITH RESPECT TO INDEMNIFICATION.

Customer agrees that OnShift may charge such unpaid Fees to Customer's credit card or via ACH payment, or otherwise bill Customer for such unpaid Fees.
